

Painting the Landscape

IN PASTEL

A PLEIN AIR WORKSHOP WITH

Jim Markle, PSA

2009 3-Day Workshop

August 6-8 9 am to 4 pm

Fee: $375 Continental breakfast and gourmet lunch served daily.

Work in the exciting medium of soft pastel with this award winning and nationally known artist. This in-depth workshop includes various ways to approach painting the landscape in pastel and will include demonstrations by the instructor. One evening, the workshop will include a program on the history of plein air painting and will include a selection of Jim's work with an explanation of how he works. Along with ongoing individual critiques as you work, a final overall critique of the class work will be held the last day. A materials list will be provided. Refer to Jim Markle's website for examples of his work: www.jimmarkle.com.

Upon request, information regarding local accommodations is available at the rate of $50-70 per night.

For registration information, please visit threepinesstudio.com, or call 231/526-9447.

Sponsored by: Three Pines studio

5959 W. Levering Rd.
P.O. Box 221
Cross Village, MI 49723
231/526-9447

Jim Markle is a signature member of the Pastel Society of American and a Master Member of the Great Lakes Plein Air Painters Association. He has won numerous awards in many national art competitions. He has years of experience teaching drawing and painting in the U.S., Canada, France and Italy and has written numerous articles for art publications. He's the inventor of the Jim Markle Pastel Easelbox and travels extensively throughout Europe and the United States painting en plein air. Great American Art Works, a manufacturer of pastels for the professional, markets a Jim Markle North American Landscape Set of pastels. His work is represented in private and corporate collections throughout this country and the Far East.